VIRGINIA PENSION
ABSTRACTS

* * * * *

The data which follow were obtained from the papers on file in pension claim S 38137 based upon service of George Lemon in the Revolutionary war.

George Lemon enlisted sometime in 1776 in Staunton Virginia as private in Lieutenant Wallace's (later captain) company, Col Dangerfield's 7th Virginia regiment and served continuously until Buford's defeat in South Carolina, in which engagement he was wounded, taken prisoner and held to the close of the war.

George Lemon was allowed pension on account of his service in the Revolutionary war on his application executed Dec 9 1822, at which time he resided in ALLEGHANY COUNTY VIRGINIA, which county had formerly been a part of Botetourt County Va. He had resided in Botetourt Co Va for many years. This soldier did not state the date and place of his birth, names of his parents, nor his age. In 1823, his occupation was that of a carpenter; he stated then that he had no wife. It is not shown that he was ever married and no reference was made to children.

In 1823, Jacob Lemon stated before the clerk of court of Alleghany Co Va that he saw George Lemon march from Staunton Va, when he entered service and again after his return but did not state any relationship between them.

In order to obtain date of last payment of pension, name and address of person paid and, possibly the date of death of this pensioner, you should address the Comptroller General, General accounting office, Washington D C and furnish him with the following: George Lemon, Certificate No 19077, issued Sept 23, 1823, rate of $8 per month, commenced Aug 18 1823 Act of March 18 1818, Virginia agency.

VIRGINIA AND MARYLAND SERVICE OF JACOB LEMMON AND JANE W3698
Bounty land warrant 26990 for 160 acres in 1855

The Revolutionary war records of Jacob Lemmon which follow was obtained from papers on file in pension claim W 3698 based upon his service in that war.

Jacob Lemmon was BORN May 7 1763 in Frederick County Maryland names of his parents not stated. He moved when about age 10 to Augusta Co Va. While residing there Jacob Lemmon enlisted Oct 1, 1780 served 4 months and 20 days as a sergeant in Capt John Tate's company, was slightly wounded at the battle of Cowpens, then under Col Howard of Maryland. He enlisted May 1781, served 3 months and 15 days as sergeant in Capt John Dickey's company, Col Huggard's Va regiment, was in the battle of Jamestown.

The soldier, Jacob Lemmon in Nov 1781 went to visit relatives in Frederick Co Maryland and while there served as substitute for a relative, Andrew Hull, and was stationed 2 months at the barracks in Fredericktown, Md, guarding prisoners captured when Cornwallis surrendered.

He returned to his home in Augusta Co Va and enlisted May 1782 and served 3 months in Capt John H Kitrick's company, Col John Moffitt's Va regiment, guarding the frontiers in Tygert's valley, f from the incursions of the Indians.

He continued after the Revolution to reside in Augusta Co, for 8 or 9 years, when he moved to Botetourt Co Va. He was allowed pension on his application executed 8-13 1832, then a resident of Botetourt Co. He died in Botetourt Co Va Nov 6 1849.

Jacob Lemmon married Jan 3 1797 in Botetourt Co Va Jane Gilliland. She was born in Rockingham Co Va and moved to Botetourt Co Va sometime before her marriage. They were married at her father house on James River Va about 22 miles northwest of Botetourt Court House, Va, names of her parents not given.

Jane Lemmon stated in 1852 that she had 7 living children and that the eldest was in his fifty- fifth year, but she did not give any names.

George Lemmon stated in 1832 that he knew the soldier Jacob Lemmon, during the Revolution and that he served part of the time with him. George Lemmon and Mary M Lemmon were living in 1855 in Botetourt Co Va. It is not shown that the George Lemmon in 1832 and the George Lemmon in 1855 were identical and it is not stated that any of them were related to the family.

VIRGINIA SERVICE OF JOHN LEMMONS OR LEMMON AND MARY # R6281

The data which follow were obtained from papers on file in pension claim R 6281, based upon service of John Lemmons or Lemmon in the Revolutionary war.

He resided in Rockingham County Va, at the time of said war. The date and place of his birth and names of his parents were not stated. He moved from Rockingham Co to Monroe Co Va.

He married Jan 2 1800 in Monroe Co Va to Mary Barr; they were married by Rev John Alderson. The names of Mary's parents and date and place of her birth were not given.

John Lemmons died Feb 7 1841, in Monroe Co Va, in which county he had resided ever since he moved from Rockingham Co, Va

Mary Lemmons as she signed her name, the widow of John Lemmons, applied Dec 29 1855 for the pension which might have been due on account of his service in the Revolutionary war. She was then a resident of Monroe Co Va, age 77. She stated then that her husband, John Lemmons, while a resident of Rockingham Co Va enlisted and served as a private in the Va troops "some considerable time" but she did not state the names of the officers under whom he served nor give the dates of enlistment or discharge from service. A report of the land office of Va was submitted in support of her claim for pension in which it was shown that one John Lemmons (Lemmon) served as private in the Illinois regiment of Va troops and received bounty land warrant No 3385 for 200 acres from the state of Va. The claim for pension of Mary Lemmon was not allowed for proof of service of John Lemmons as alleged by her was not furnished, nor was proof established that John Lemmons who received land from Va was identical with her husband. In 1855 1855 reference was made to children but no names were stated. One George Lemmons was a resident of Monroe Co Va, at that time but his relationship to the family of John and Mary Lemmon

VIRGINIA SERVICE OF SAMUEL LENOX A BOUNTY LAND WARRANT 12307
issued March 10 1790

The information concerning the issuance of warrants carded on this form is found in volume 2 to 4 of Land warrants issued prior to 1800, which are registers of bounty land warrants, issued to non commissioned officers and privates under congressional resolutions of Sept 16, 1776, and subsequent dates. Other records relative to the applications for warrants appear to have been destroyed in the war Dept fire of Nov 9 1800.

The Wood and Glass families have been represented in every war since the founding of the Colonies. Tradition tells us that Lieut Thomas Wood was thought to be dead, at Fort Mifflin and was being measured for his coffin. He was conscious of what was going on about him and in some way a physician rescued him from the state of coma with which he had fallen. By drawing a towel dipped in ice water through a wound. Stories told me in my childhood cause me to believe.

The last statement is not signed by any one of the children or anyone.

There were several letters of inquiry concerning Thomas Glass from various persons in the files.

Purser U S Navy Yard Gosport VIRGINIA SER JOSEPH
 JAMES CLARK AND WIDOW MARGARET CLARK 235 NAVY BLDG W

TO THE COMMISSIONER OF PENSIONS:

The memorial of the undersigned, the widow of the late James H. Clark who was a Purser in the Navy of the United States; respectfully shews;

That her husband the aforesaid James H Clark entered service of the U S 1813, and while in service and holding the rank above mentioned, he departed this life at Brooklyn, 19th September 1844 that she was married to James H Clark 6th June 1815, and in proof thereof she refers to the papers on file in the pension office, upon which she obtained a pension for five years. She claims the benefits of the Act of Congress June 11 1845 granting pensions to the widow of officers, seamen, and marines, who have died in service aforesaid and she requests that her name may be inscribed on the roll of pensioners under the law who are paid at the city of New York N Y. signed H T Clark 1850 Jan 5.

----- A letter in the files addressed from 136 Washington Street, Jan 4 1851 to Jas D Heath, Esquire in Washington, D.C.
 Dear Sir: I was led to believe while at the Navy Agent Office yesterday that my mother, Mrs H T Clark widow of late Purser Clark who died while on duty at the Norfolk Navy Yard, was receiving a less amount of pension money than she is justly entitled to. Purser Clark was receiving pay under new law, relating the pay of the corps - is not his widow entitled to $25 per month? Mr Storor thinks she is, if so she is entitled to $300 back pay. Will you do me the favor to answer my inquiries at your earliest leisure and oblige, James H Clark.

Margaret T Clark made declaration 1845 July 1. Stating she married James H Clark 1815 June 6, her maiden name being Margaret T Wade of Elizabeth Town, and he was then on the navy married June 6 1815. She was of Elizabeth Town New Jersey.

DECLARATION WAS MADE BY EPHRAIM OSBURN in FERRIS COUNTY KENTUCKY September 9, 1834 age 30 stating he was a resident of HARRIS COUNTY KENTUCKY, who applied under the Act of June 7, 1832.

States he entered service of the United States under Capt ENOCH OSBURN, LIEUTENANT JAMES WALD KIRKGO, forgotten as a volunteer and first met at OSBURN'S FORT IN MONTGOMERY COUNTY VIRGINIA, in he thinks April but the year he does not recollect and staid in the service until the end of 6 months, the time of his tour when he was regularly discharged but the location he has long since lost as he did not know or expect it would be of any service to him, they were engaged generally in guarding the frontiers against the INDIANS, and had frequent scouts but no engagement, the time of this service was perhaps a year or 2 before the Expedition against the CHEROKEES. He afterwards went as a volunteer under Capt Frederic Edwards for one month on Clinch, after the Tories, the route caught a deserter and brought him in but dont remember his name, he was out this time one month.

He then went as a volunteer under Capt Abram Bletcher to the Cherokee Nation first met at the LONG ISLAND OF HOLSTON and went on by the Boat of HelaChucky and there expected an attack but did not have one, and he thinks staid there 2 or 3 days, then were a good many troops from North Carolina and Virginia went on from the Island, he recollects an officer with the N C troops by name of Williams either a major or Colonel but he thinks a Colonel His own Colonel was CHRISTY Some where on the way before they got to FRENCH BROAD RIVER a flag was sent in by the INDIANS for peace, but it was understood that there were still more that would not make peace and the army proceeded on the FRENCH BROAD RIVER and halted expecting an attack; that night a detachment was ordered out to cross the river in the night above the crossing place and he was one that went, but there was no Indians there, but there was signs the next day all crossed the river and took up camp and a preparing tents a man sent down a saplin and fell it on an other that was laying asleep and killed him -from there they went on to the DRAGGING CANOE town and they were hiding, all gone but one old BLIND INDIAN. The army destroyed all they could find they were then discharged and he got his discharge, this tour was 2 months as he now believes, and this tour was before the one after the torics described before this.

He again went to with Capt Brummett as a guard of Ammunition from the LEAD MINES across the flour Gap to North Carolina and declarant the ammunition he thinks to be a McCran they staid several days at the Lead Mines, waiting for the Lead and he thinks was gone one month this tour. He was several times in scouting parties, after the torics, but dont now remember enough to tel the officers nor describe the troops. He is old infirm and states what he can remember and might state much more that is what he thinks but wants to state nothing but what he remembers. He has no application in FERRY COUNTY his adjoining county because there is no one so handy to him to do the business as in Perry except at the Circuit Court where it is only lawyers and as he had some acquaintances in Perry Co he hopes it is no difference as to the county, the time of his service can it be better identified think by the Cherokee Expedition, which is well known at the department as he cannot remember the year, he has left all his discharges.

Affidavit by Micajah Napier, Almond Jones in Perry Co Ky who formerly resided in Harlan Co Ky are well acquainted with the soldier Ephraim Osburn. Also affidavit of Daniel Duff a clergyman residing in Perry Co Ky is acquainted with the said soldier. AFFIDAVIT OF JEREMIAH SMITH in Harlan Co Ky age 74 knew him and that he served under Capt Enoch Osburn at Osburns Fort and was on frequent scouts from the fort, and he also certifies that "My Brother Joshua Pennington was in the Expedition against the Cherokee Indians, and he understood that the said Ephraim Osburn was with him in said tour.

One Jesse Combs, was county court clerk of Perry Co Ky 1834 and made certification to the above.
